

Western Force v Bay of Plenty

Venue: HBF Park

Date: 16 July

Time: 7:30pm

The Western Force is delighted to announce that the club's seventh home game fixture will be played against New Zealand provincial powerhouse Bay of Plenty on Friday, July 16.

The first-class match, which will be played at HBF Park, is a fantastic opportunity for Western Australian rugby fans to witness a traditional heavyweight of the New Zealand National Provincial Championship live, and is set to be the last chance for rugby fans in 2021 to see the Force in action and enjoy the unique match day experience.

The Bay of Plenty travelling side is set to be full of Super Rugby stars, including the likes of Chiefs trio Aidan Ross, hooker Nathan Harris and scrumhalf Te Toiroa Tahuriorangi, as well as Blues flyhalf Otere Black among countless others. The Steamers will be led by their coach Daryl Gibson, a former All Black and Crusaders centre.
